

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. They can't show such a blatantly partisan movie without airing the opposing viewpoint. The public interest covers the whole spectrum of viewers, all political affiliations.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.